

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION

Many of us N.A.'s have found self confidence is a liability when first getting sober. We have found remembering the good times could send us back on the street. A reliance on God and other people are necessary for sobriety. The way to independence for a drug addict is ~~learn~~ through dependence.

The disease concept of drug addiction is accepted by the American Medical Association (AMA). The fact is will power cannot cure drug addiction.

This program is for any addict who has the desire to stay sober many of us have been to jails and hospitals and have been hurting deep inside.

PROGRESSION: Some of us have been in and out of N.A. only to find the things that didn't happen to us the first time happen when we went back out.

The truth about addiction comes out at the meetings.

There are high and low bottom cases of drug addiction.

You can let your bottom ~~z~~ go down as far as you want. I was spiritually, physically and mentally ~~x~~ bankrupt.
